Terms and Conditions

We strongly recommend that all vehicles are registered, taxed and insured before delivery to the company for conversion. The company has limited insurance and cannot drive unregistered or untaxed vehicles on the road, and some third party losses may not be covered. The company accepts full liability for losses, which result from it's own actions.

Warranty

The company will repair or replace any defective products, which result from faulty materials and/or workmanship, provided such faults are notified in writing within 12 months of delivery. The company's liability is limited to the cost of repair or replacement, and the company shall, under no circumstances accept any liability for consequential loss, damage to other property or personal injury. Any products returned under warranty, which are subsequently found to be working normally, will incur delivery and handling charges.

Please see our Warranty document for full details.

Delivery

When products are delivered, the customer is responsible for checking they are in good working order. Failure to do so may result in additional charges if products are returned to the company.

Cancellation

There is no charge for the cancellation of orders for standard products prior to delivery. Non standard products and Conversions will be charged at cost for the work done. The company will repair or replace any defective products, which result from faulty materials and/or workmanship, provided such faults are notified in writing within 12 months of delivery. The company's liability is limited to the cost of repair or replacement, and the company shall, under no circumstances accept any liability for consequential loss, damage to other property or personal injury. Any products returned under warranty, which are subsequently found to be working normally, will incur delivery and handling charges.
